

ANDERSON BULLETIN

OCT 24 2011

IN THIS ISSUE

- Cybersecurity Awareness
- Convocation Speaker

To submit an item to the Anderson Bulletin go to:
news@mgt.unm.edu

NEWS

Cybersecurity Awareness by the US Dept of Homeland Security

Join Timothy Fraser, Director of the National Cybersecurity Awareness Campaign, on Wed,

Oct 26 from 4-6pm to learn more about the importance of increasing your awareness and understanding about Cybersecurity. The event in the Jackson Student Center is free and open to all and is a must attend for everyone who uses the internet. RSVP by Oct 24 at <http://www.mgt.unm.edu/cyber>. Questions? Contact Aline Gonzales at gonzales@mgt.unm.edu.

Anderson Juniors Wanted!

Target Corp. is looking for students in their junior year for paid, summer internships in management, leadership & supply chain. For more information contact the UNM Campus Liaison Chris Christensen at chris.s.christensen@target.com.

Dr. Montoya selected for Fellowship Program

Professor Manuel Montoya was selected as a Faculty Fellow for the Latino Graduate Student Fellowship. The program sponsored by El Centro de la Raza and the Title V Graduate Resource Center seeks to increase representation of the Latino graduate and professional students within the UNM Community. It also serves as a support system by making resources, networks, and skills available to these students for successful completion of their graduate degrees.

Anderson Student receives NSHMBA Scholarship

Anderson MBA student Corrine Trevino was recently awarded the National Society of Hispanic MBA's scholarship, and she attended the national conference in Anaheim, CA, with Megan Conner, Director of Anderson Advisement. The conference was a great opportunity to network with Hispanic business professionals and Fortune 500 companies who are looking to diversify their workforce. To find out more about NSHMBA and the New Mexico chapter, check out: www.nshmba.org.

Linda and O.C. Ferrell named to NASBA board

Dr. O.C. Ferrell and Dr. Linda Ferrell were appointed as board members to the prestigious National Association of State Boards of Accounting. Dean Doug Brown says the Ferrells were selected because the NASBA wanted leading national figures on their board to lend guidance in ethical accounting practice and standards. Congratulations!

Anderson Convocation Speaker Announced

Anderson's convocation will take place on December 17th, 2pm at Johnson Center. Graduates will hear from UNM Regent, Bradley Hosmer. Lieutenant General Hosmer chairs the Board of Directors of the Armed Forces Services Corporation. Since retiring from the Air Force in 1994 he has also advised the Department of Defense and industry on long range and strategic planning, and chaired or manned public and private special advisory councils. He has a bachelor of science from the Air Force Academy and a Master of Arts degree from Oxford University.

ANDERSON BIG SHOTS

It was a standing room only at the Anderson Business to Business Breakfast series on Tuesday, October 11 with featured speaker Mark Lautman, CEcD, CRE. Mr. Lautman is a leading economic developer in New Mexico and was behind major economic development programs in Rio Rancho, Santa Theresa, and at Mesa del Sol. He is currently working with the city of Farmington.

If you missed his lecture it is available on the Anderson website at <http://www.mgt.unm.edu/businessstobusiness/>.

The Anderson Business to Business Breakfast series is sponsored by Sibilla and George Boerigter of SoundOff Signal.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- Wed, Oct. 26 Cybersecurity Forum, 4pm, Jackson Student Center
- Sat. Nov 5 "Walk to Cure Diabetes", All Day, Balloon Fiesta Park
- Sat. Dec 17 Anderson Convocation, 2pm, Johnson Center

The Anderson Bulletin is published on Mondays. Deadlines for inclusion is Wednesday at noon; send complete information to news@mgt.unm.edu or submit online at <http://www.mgt.unm.edu/bulletin/submitContent.asp>.